Nurture the Nature (08-08-2022)

Our school organised “Nurture the Nature” a weekly programme from 1st to 6th August, 2022.

Purpose of the Programme

- ❖ To create awareness regarding the protection and care towards the nature.
- ❖ To let the children know the hard-ship, the struggle and the anxiety of a farmer from the time one ploughs the field until he gets the yield.
- ❖ Learning by doing

❖ To develop competitive spirit among the students.

This program was conducted in commemoration of Laudato Si week. It was not only a regular event but also an environmentally motivating programme to our students by nurturing saplings in a spirit of competition the time limit for the competition is 3 months i.e., from the month of August to October 2022.

Students of the primary section are provided with pots to nurture the variety of flower plants. The class which will show the best performance in caring the plants will be appreciated and awarded. Similarly, the high school students are allotted a piece of land according to the houses. They are instructed to grow vegetables.

Categories: Classes VI, VII are considered as junior group

Classes VIII, IX are considered as senior group

During this week, children with a lot of interest and eagerness collected the seeds of different plants. They were passionate to win in the competition and taking care of their produce students with lot of energy dug the land, manured it on 4th August and made it ready to sow on 5th August. Juniors have sown a wide variety of seeds with the help of the teachers. The Head Mistress, the Correspondent and all other sisters participated along with the students, an emphatic gesture of encouragement and guidance.

On 6th August, the seniors along with groups teachers & sisters, put the seeds in their allotted places enthusiastically.

Conculusion :

We believe “ Learning by doing” is achieved only when the student involvement is higher than teachers. Surely, then each student shows curiosity to take care of plant, to get a high yield and to be the winner of the competition.
